

BIOGRAPHY

BETSY J. LAMM joined CDD in 2008, following a judicial clerkship for the Honorable Chief Justice Ruth V. McGregor of the Arizona Supreme Court. Betsy has practiced at the firm her entire professional career.

Betsy's practice focuses on complex commercial litigation, including appeals. Betsy routinely handles complex legal issues and litigation positions for clients in the private and public section. Her cases have involved a wide spectrum of issues, ranging from breach of contract, defamation, breach of fiduciary duty, conspiracy and business disputes to Section 1983, Title IX and Title VII claims. Betsy has litigated cases in state and federal court. Betsy also has significant appellate experience, representing clients on appeal before Arizona's appellate courts, the Federal Circuit Court of Appeals, the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeal and the United States Supreme Court. Betsy has successfully handled oral argument on novel legal issues before the Arizona Court of Appeals, the Arizona Supreme Court, and the Ninth Circuit.

Betsy is also an active member of her community, serving as a court-appointed member of the Foster Care Review Board in Maricopa County since 2016 and spending time volunteering at her children's school.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Betsy is a member of the Foster Care Review Board ("FCRB") in Maricopa County, Arizona, a citizens' review board created by Arizona statute to advise Arizona's juvenile court system on progress toward achieving permanent, safe placements for children in foster care. Members of the FCRB are appointed by the Presiding Juvenile Court Judge in Maricopa County to serve three-year terms. Betsy has served as a member of the FCRB since her initial appointment in 2016, with reappointments in 2019, 2021, and 2024. Betsy has also served as a screening interviewer for the American Bar Association's Judicial Intern Opportunity Program ("JIOP"), and as a formal JIOP mentor from 2009 to 2014. Betsy also encourages her children to take action in their community. Finally, time permitting, Betsy enjoys volunteering at her children's school in the Madison School District.
