COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Kaysey currently serves as a Regional Co-Chair for the ABA Section of Litigation's Judicial Intern Opportunity Program ("JIOP"). Prior to that appointment, Kaysey served as a JIOP Working Group Member, a screening interviewer, and a JIOP mentor. Kaysey is an active member of the Arizona Asian American Bar Association, a Council Member of her church, a Member of the Xavier College Prep Alumnae Board, and the Class Agent for her high school class. She is also the Co-Recording Secretary for the GFWC Desert Jade Women's Club, a local non-profit volunteer organization that provides community and enrichment that annually awards scholarships to high school seniors of Chinese descent. Kaysey also volunteers as a trial judge for the annual Arizona High School Mock Trial Program. In recognition of Kaysey's commitment to the community, the ABA Section of Litigation selected Kaysey as the 2021 recipient of the Laurie Miller Public Service Award, an award given to a Section Leader for excellence in advocating for and/or assisting under-served persons or communities for the public good.
