COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Julieta serves as Director of Judicial Appointments for the Latina Mentoring Project (LMP) and as a Board Member of Los Abogados, Arizona's Hispanic Bar Association. In her role with LMP, she supports qualified judicial candidates through the appointments process, drafts and coordinates letters of support, and helps plan events that foster mentorship and professional development for Latina law students, attorneys, and judges in Arizona.

As a Board Member of Los Abogados, Julieta actively participates in the organization's leadership and initiatives, including service on Los Abogados' Gala Committee, Latina Committee, and Pipeline Committee. She is particularly committed to her work with the Los Abogados Pipeline Program, a fellowship designed to increase access to the legal profession for Latino students. The program provides selected participants with structured mentorship, free LSAT preparation, and law school application guidance. As a mentor, she works one-on-one with fellows to strengthen resumes and personal statements and navigate the law school admissions process.
